CARBON 12

For Dubai-based CARBON 12, this will be their 13th consecutive participation at Art Dubai. The gallery is presenting works by artists from their roster, such as Michael Sailstorfer, Sara Almehairi, and Anthony Akinbola, among others. Founding Director Kouroush Nouri affirms Art Dubai as one of the most important commercial gatherings on their calendar. "With the level of effort and investment the fair represents, we are aiming to increase the gallery's visibility, not only commercially but also institutionally," he says. Concurrently, CARBON 12 is presenting a solo exhibition by André Butzer at their space. Kouroush also teases a unique collaboration between one of their artists and a local brand, which will be unveiled during Art Dubai Week.
